

Any business, or bank that feels like they can call me at anytime to solicit my business from them, will in turn do the exact opposite!

I will not deal way any business that makes phone calls to your home no matter what the excuse!

Please keep this in mind while making your decision on the Indiana no call ruling.